MYM Receives Permit Approval to Begin Construction on Laval, QC Project

Vancouver, B.C., August 16, 2017 – MYM Nutraceuticals Inc., (CSE: MYM) (the “Company” or “MYM”) is pleased to announce the City of Laval, QC has approved the building permits to begin construction on the Laval project.

MYM has commenced phase one construction of the Laval production facility which is capable of producing 1000kg of medical cannabis annually, approximately seven million dollars in gross revenue for the Company. The estimated date of completion for phase one construction will be Q4 of 2017. MYM has engaged ICORE Construction, one of Quebec's most reputable contractors, to oversee and execute the construction.

“With the approved permits, architectural drawings and security plans already in place, MYM has commenced construction of the Laval QC project”, said Rob Gietl, CEO of MYM. “We are building within our existing warehouse building which accelerates our construction timeline to approximately 90 days.”.

Phase two of the Laval project will consist of building an additional 16,000 square foot facility for the growing and manufacturing of medical cannabis products which is capable of producing 1800kg of medical cannabis annually, an increase of approximately 13 million dollars in gross revenue for the Company. Phase two application permits will be ready for submission within 60 days with a construction completion date of 3rd quarter 2018.
